South Fayette Foundation for Excellence

Become a Member!

Your membership ensures that innovative learning opportunities will be made available to all students in the South Fayette School District. A fund has been established with The Pittsburgh Foundation to provide grant money which is used to:

- supplement limited district resources
- support innovative teaching programs
- provide staff development and subsidize teacher education
- provide campus enhancements
- provide instructional supplies and equipment
- promote student achievement and provide scholarships
- improve educational programs
- improve school-community relations and provide positive publicity.

Nothing is more important than a good education.
Help us build on that foundation!
