Athens County Children Services Peanut Butter and Jelly Project

Athens County Children Services provides children in the Trimble, Federal Hocking, Athens City, Alexander, and Nelsonville-York city schools who benefit from free or reduced price breakfast and lunch programs during the school year with peanut butter and jelly sandwiches throughout the Summer. Contact your child's school administration for information on enrolling for this program. For more details, check online at www.athenschildrenservices.com/pages/get-involved/the-2015-peanut-butter-and-jelly-project .

Donation: Donations of unopened jars of peanut butter and jelly and financial donations (to purchase sandwich bread) are accepted to support the project. Donations may be dropped off with receptionist at Children Services Building 22 at 18 Stony Brook Drive in Athens during business hours. Cash donations will also be accepted, or checks made out to “Athens County Children Services” with “Peanut Butter and Jelly (or PBJ) Project” written in the note section.

Most Athens county banks and credit unions will also be accepting donations of unopened jars of peanut butter and jelly for the program between May 12-30 during business hours (contact your local bank for hours of operation).
