

Support the Lorain County JVS by becoming a campaign volunteer.

The Lorain County JVS Levy Committee is a volunteer organization that is dedicated to educating the community about the importance of Issue 14, the November 5, 2019 levy. We rely on private donations and volunteer time. We need you!!
By volunteering, you will add strength to our effort.

Remember to add your name below as someone who endorses this levy!

Name _____

Street address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Phone _____

Email address *(if you are a JVS employee, please use your personal email and not your school district email)

Here's how you can help and be involved: Please indicate how you would like to help!

_____ Yes, I would like to attend or host a Levy Conversation Gathering (aka: a Coffee)

_____ Yes, I will allow a yard sign at my place of residence or business.

Address (if different than above): _____

_____ Yes, I will volunteer at events handing out literature from a campaign table.

_____ Yes, please use my/our names to show endorsement for this levy campaign.

Name(s) as it should appear: _____

_____ Yes, I will make a contribution to the levy fund. This levy is funded by private donations (individual and business). You can donate by sending a check payable to Sam Battle, Lorain County JVS Levy Committee Treasurer.

This form and any donation checks can be mailed to:
Lorain County JVS Levy Campaign
Attention Sam Battle
15181 State Route 58
Oberlin, Ohio 44074