McCOMB GIRLS SOFTBALL PROGRAM
CODE OF SPORTSMANSHIP

The conduct of sportsmanship should be the example of good sportsmanship to the players and adults of the McComb Girls Softball Program. McComb Girls Softball Program will not tolerate conduct, which may be interpreted as poor sportsmanship by players, coaches, parents or other adults. It is the responsibility of the coach to maintain and enforce appropriate conduct of players and adults during games and practices.

Examples of inappropriate conduct are: Abusive or degrading language, physical threat, under the influence of intoxicating substances, smoking as a minor, support or managing poor sportsmanship by players, harassment of umpires, entering fields of play except for injury, disputing or influencing umpire's decision and non-control of parents or other spectators by coaches at games, practices or other facilities.

Penalty: Severe or continuous acts of poor sportsmanship may result in the forfeiture of games and/or expulsion from the McComb Girls Softball Program.

I have read this statement and will abide by the Code of Sportsmanship. If I fail to conduct myself in a sportsman like manner, I will accept any penalty that the McComb Girls Softball Program deems necessary.
