

RELIGIOUS-BASED EXEMPTIONS FROM SCHOOL PROGRAMS

Policy Code:

3510

The curriculum of the school district will be based on the current statewide instructional standards. The board and the school district will exercise their authority to select appropriate materials and teach the curriculum in an effective manner. The board supports the free exercise of religion and prohibits discrimination on the basis of religion. While students are expected to participate in all required courses and school activities, this policy provides parents with a process for seeking a religious-based exemption for a child's participation.

If parents have religious-based objections to certain programs, they may petition to exempt their child from participation. Any request for exemption should be submitted to the superintendent, or designee, in accordance with the following guidelines:

- the request must be in writing;
- the request must specify the activities or studies which violate their religious beliefs and explain how their religious beliefs are violated by the activity; and
- the request may suggest a proposed alternate activity or study.

The superintendent, or designee, will review the request in accordance with constitutional and any statutory standards and will accommodate the request when required to do so by law. If not required by law, the superintendent, or designee, may accommodate such a request after weighing factors, such as the interest of the child, the impact on other students and the availability of alternative activities or materials. An appeal of the superintendent's decision may be made to the board through the student grievance procedure.
