School-Level Teachers of the Year

Congratulations to Laura Johnson from Balfour Elementary and Leah Chase from Lindley Park Elementary on being selected as their school's Teacher of the Year! They will compete against other teachers throughout the district, and the Asheboro City Schools Teacher of the Year will be announced at the annual banquet on May 8th!

Read Across America Day Celebrations

Friday was a great day celebrating Dr. Seuss's birthday and Read Across America in Asheboro City Schools! Many, many thanks to our guest readers! Our students loved having you in their classrooms!

The Hunchback of Notre Dame

The Park Street Players proudly present ... The Hunchback of Notre Dame! This year's musical promises to be the most extravagant showing the troupe has ever put on for our community! Show times are this Thursday, Friday, and Saturday night at 7 p.m. and Sunday at 2 p.m. Tickets are $10 for students and $12 for general admission. Tickets can be reserved by emailing tickets@asheboro.k12.nc.us or by calling (336) 496-8543. Tickets will also be available at the door. See you at the show!

Congrats to Special Olympics Winners

Congratulations to our AHS students who placed in the Randolph County Special Olympics -
Heather – First and Second Places
Elizabeth – Fifth and Sixth Places
Alex - Sixth Place
Jaime – Two First Place Awards

Rotary 4-Way Speech Winner

Congratulations to Edith Mata Torres, the Rotary 4-Way Speech Winner from Asheboro High School!

Fun Times at Guy B. Teachey Career Day

Last week, several volunteers participated in Career Day at Teachey! A special thanks to everyone who volunteered to share with our students!

Welcoming Our Newest Blue Comet

Congratulations to Ms. Nikki Domally, principal of Lindley Park Elementary School, on the birth of her baby boy! Phillip Blake Domally was born on Friday, weighing in at 8lbs, .05oz.

NAMS Balfour Books Buddies

Last week sixth-grade students with the NAMS Principal's Advisory Club ate lunch with Balfour Kindergarten students Monday through Friday. On Friday, students returned to classrooms after lunch to read to their buddies. NAMS students read books purchased for the NAMS Woof Gang Club by the RCSPCA. NAMS students will return each Friday to read to Kindergarten classes. This collaboration is an incredible example of the supportive relationships within the Asheboro City Schools district and community.

NAMS Writer's Celebrations

Congratulations to student-writers participating in the NAMS Writer's Workshop!

Balfour Hosts Donuts with Dad

On Friday, March 2, Balfour Elementary hosted a Donuts with Dads Watch DOGS event. Dads, grandfathers, uncles, and older brothers attended to have donuts with their child and learn about the Watch DOGS program at Balfour. Several of the dads stayed for part of the morning to read to a class in celebration of Read Across America day.
