AAEOP Canned Food Drive Kick-Off

The Asheboro Association of Educational Office Professionals (AAEOP) is collecting canned food and non-perishable items for our local food bank this holiday season! Please donate items at any Asheboro City Schools location. Bring in your canned goods by Wednesday, December 5th.

CANNED FOOD DRIVE

November 13th – December 5th

NCAE NBC Boot Camp

The North Carolina Association of Educators (NCAE) National Board Certification (NBC) Network invites you to attend the annual winter NBC Boot Camp January 31 - February 2, 2019. Initial and renewal NBC candidates will be provided an opportunity to work on components, gain access to trained NCAE NBC coaches, and critique written products. Candidates are in the driver's seat at Boot Camp! Boot Camp begins with dinner and a keynote address on January 31st. The agenda for Friday and Saturday is candidate-driven and will conclude by 3 p.m. on Saturday.

ACS Hour of Code - TONIGHT

Asheboro City Schools will host Hour of Code tonight from 5-7 p.m. in the media center at Asheboro High School. Hour of Code is an introduction to computer science, designed to demystify computer coding. The event will demonstrate that anyone – from third graders to seniors in high school - can learn coding basics. Please share this information with your students! We look forward to seeing you this evening!

DLL Kindness Challenge Recap

Students at Donna Lee Loflin Elementary School participated in the 30-day Kindness Challenge and celebrated the completion of the challenge two weeks ago. After completing class lessons, students gave paper chain links to each other to represent their random acts of kindness. The links were collected over the 30-day period and now they are stretched throughout the entire school building.

Senior Holiday Lunch 2018 Help Us Spread the Word

We'll host the annual Senior Holiday Luncheon for Asheboro citizens, age 60 or older next Wednesday in the multi-purpose room (auditorium) at 12 p.m.

AHS Students Sign Letters of Intent

Last Tuesday, Asheboro High School students Trevor Marsh and Michael Smith signed National Letters of Intent to participate in interscholastic sports at the college level. Mr. Marsh signed to play baseball with UNC-Wilmington and Mr. Smith signed to wrestle for Belmont Abbey College in Charlotte, NC.

Advanced Placement Scholar Celebration

You are invited to join us for the Advanced Placement Scholar Celebration on Wednesday, December 19th in the media center at Asheboro High School at 4 p.m. This year we will recognize all AP Scholars from the 2017-18 school year!

Staff Condolences

Please keep Holly White and her family in your thoughts and prayers. Ms. White's father-in-law passed away on Thanksgiving Day.

Marsh and Conville Reunite at NAMS

Asheboro High School student-athlete Trevor Marsh stopped by North Asheboro Middle School last week to see his former elementary teacher, Mrs. Tiffany Conville. Mrs. Conville gave Mr. Marsh spirit wear as he heads off attend UNC-Wilmington next year. Congratulations to Trevor and Mrs. Conville for demonstrating the supportive relationship our teachers have with our students. Go Blue Comets!

Cheerleading Competition Recap

North Asheboro Middle School extends appreciation to the Asheboro High School cheerleaders for showing their support this past weekend at the Randolph Cheer Competition. Also pictured are the cheerleaders from North and South Asheboro Middle Schools celebrating together at the conclusion of the competition. NAMS sends a big shout out to SAMS for placing third. Congratulations SAMS!
