

Mt Oval Pioneer Day Camp

Sponsored by the Pickaway County Historical Society

Who: Children entering 4th or 5th grade during the 2019-2020 school year

Date: Wednesday, July 17, 2019

Time: 8:15 – 8:30 am Drop Off 3:00-3:30 pm Pick Up

Location: 3601 Emerson Road, Circleville

Cost: $15 per child to cover the cost of a T-shirt and craft materials. The cost will be a total of $23 for those who wish to attend both the Pioneer Day Camp and the Nature Day Camp.

The day will be filled with outdoor hands-on activities at historic Mt. Oval. Following a tour of Mt. Oval, the children will experience making butter, playing pioneer games, and singing and dancing to pioneer music. While hiking the children will come upon a “frontiersman” who will tell them about early life on the Pickaway Plains. Crafts will include leather stamping, rope making, and candle making. The children will be given a treat of homemade ice cream in the afternoon.

Children will need to dress comfortably and bring a sack lunch. Lemonade and water will be provided.

All activities will be conducted and supervised by professional educators.

For registration and more information, phone the Pickaway County Historical Society (740-474-1495) on Tuesday – Friday from 1:00 pm – 4:00 pm or Sandy Montgomery at 740-474-1641. You may also register online by going to the Mount Oval Historic House and Farm – Mt. Oval on Facebook.

All registrations and checks must be in by June 22nd.
