

Mt Oval Nature Day Camp

Sponsored by the Pickaway County Historical Society

Who: Children entering 4th or 5th grade during the 2019-2020 school year

Date: Wednesday, July 24, 2019

Time: 8:15-8:30 am. Drop Off 3:00-3:30 pm Pick Up

Location: 3601 Emerson Road, Circleville

Cost: $15 per child to cover the cost of a T-shirt and craft materials. The cost for those who attend both the Nature Day Camp and the Pioneer Day Camp will be a total of $23.

The day will be filled with outdoor hands-on activities, games, and crafts. An officer from the Division of Wildlife will instruct each child in archery and if the weather permits will take the children on a creek walk. The children will also be given an opportunity to touch the furs of some of Ohio's wild animals as an educator tells them about the habits of the animals. Other lessons will be conducted by a master gardener and a butterfly expert.

Children will need to dress comfortably and bring a sack lunch. Lemonade and water will be provided.

All activities will be supervised by professional educators.

For registration and more information, phone Sandy Montgomery at 740-474-1641, or the Pickaway County Historical Society office at 740-474-1495 on Tuesday-Friday from 1:00pm-4:00pm. Registration may also be done online by going to the Mt. Oval Historic House and Farm on Facebook.

All registrations and checks must be in by June 22nd.
