Outdoor Reading Fun!

Isaac Renninger and Paizley Thetga taking advantage of the warm weather and reading from their "book boxes" outside!

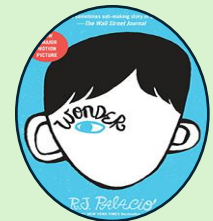

Spring has finally sprung here in the Northeast! Kids want to be outside, and we want them out there too! At this point in the year, many students have taken off and their reading is improving drastically! Now more than ever, we want to encourage our students to KEEP READING! Below are some engaging and motivating ways to get your children reading OUTSIDE!

- Find a hammock to read in!
- Do you have a trampoline at home? Have your child grab some blankets and pillows and create a cozy reading time on the trampoline.
- Read under the stars! Grab your flashlights and read together around a campfire or just on your front lawn under the stars.
- Set up a small kiddie pool, fill it with blankets, place it in the shade and spend time reading outside!
- Meet friends at the park for a reading time! Set up a blanket and some snacks and read together.

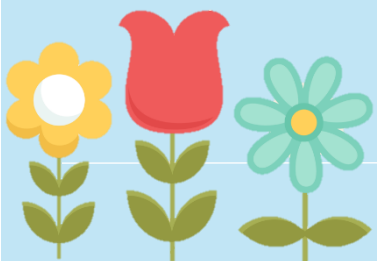

A friendly reminder...

Grades 3-5 will begin PSSA testing April 23rd! Make sure your child is rested and ready to rock!

Book Spotlight!

Wonder is the story of a 10-year-old boy facing challenges in school due to his appearance. This story encourages readers to embrace differences and discover the beauty of empathy. Recommended for our 4th-5th grade students. This book was also made into a movie, called Wonder! It can be rented on Prime Video.

SRU Happenings...

Miss Chapman's RTII students put on a wonderful reader's theater play for all the first-grade students to enjoy! They have been working hard on reading fluency and reading with expression! They also created their own props for their performance.
Grade job first grade!

A big shout out to our RTII Superheroes! These students have made great gains in their reading, and we are so proud of them!

Great job superheroes!
