

Harlan Rowe Middle School

Title I Program

Transition Plan

The Harlan Rowe Middle School staff, parents, and students will share the responsibility to ensure that our students are prepared to transition to the high school.

SCHOOL RESPONSIBILITIES:

The faculty and staff of Harlan Rowe Middle School, will encourage and support students' transitioning to the high school by doing the following:

- ❖ Provide high-quality curriculum and instruction delivered by certified and highly-qualified staff in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables the participating children to meet the state's achievement standards so students are ready for the high school.
- ❖ Help students with selecting their classes that are most suitable for them.
- ❖ Provide an afternoon to allow students to visit the high school to learn about the courses being offered.
- ❖ Develop lessons and activities relating to careers to help students have a better understanding of possible career choices to help with their selection of classes.

PARENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

I understand that my participation in my child's education is important to his/her achievement of transitioning to the high school by doing the following:

- ❖ Stay informed about my child's education and communicate with the school, such as frequently checking PowerSchool, contacting teachers with any questions or concerns.
- ❖ Attend the parent meeting held by the high school about the offerings and selection of classes.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

I will share the responsibility to improve my academic achievement and meet the state's high standards to be able to transition to the high school by:

- ❖ Participating to the best of my ability in all of my classes to learn the necessary content.
- ❖ Listen attentively and ask questions during the meeting to understand what courses are being offered.
- ❖ Select appropriate courses that will help me be successful.
