- 2021-22 school year $83,098 distributed to 61 students. MACC Estimates that 92 additional students could be eligible in the 2021-22 and 2022-23 school years. Our programs start at various times throughout the school year and will continue to identify eligible students on a rolling basis, until funds are expended.

MACC determined amounts per student based on enrollment, program hours, and student need. MACC also maintains an application for emergency funding which was, and continues to be, made available to all enrolled students. Students can complete an application and demonstrate additional need for Emergency Financial Aid Grants for expenses incurred related to the disruption of campus operation due to the coronavirus pandemic. Expenses can include food, housing, course materials, technology, health care and child care.
