

Wayne County Public Schools' 2021-2022 Title I Student Recognition Showcase

<http://cliparts.co/clipart/3265628>>Clip arts

Everyday Heroes

The Federal Programs Department Celebrates Great Ideas!

<https://www.dreamstime.com/stock-illustration-flat-illustration-great-ideas-competition-hands-holding-bulbs-eps-image54567182>

Thank you for visiting our digital repository of written and visual student work. The Title I Showcase is a montage of great ideas and creativity from students across Wayne County Public Schools. These excellent work products reflect this year's theme: "Everyday Heroes".

The goal of the Curriculum and Instruction Department, which includes the Title I Department, is to provide each child with new challenges that will result in a rewarding school experience. Rigorous instruction in the core content areas of reading, language arts, science, social studies, and math is the department's priority. Quality instruction in the fine arts (music, theater, & art), technology, and physical education complete our program. Each student has the opportunity to develop areas of interest and skill. This Showcase is one of the multiple ways that we share with parents and the community the talent of our students. I hope you enjoy it. I beam with pride every time I see what our children, teachers, and administrators are doing in Wayne County Public Schools.

Dr. Carol H. Artis
Assistant Superintendent of Curriculum & Instruction
Wayne County Public Schools

Brogden Middle School

Karla R.

An everyday hero means a person that is willing to put everyone before themselves no matter the risk or danger, and to me we call them volunteers.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Saira V.

I've came across many heros in my life and I haven't noticed because not all heroes wear a cape.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Angel H.

Teachers are everyday heroes because they help us prepare for the real world.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Brogden Primary School

Milca D.

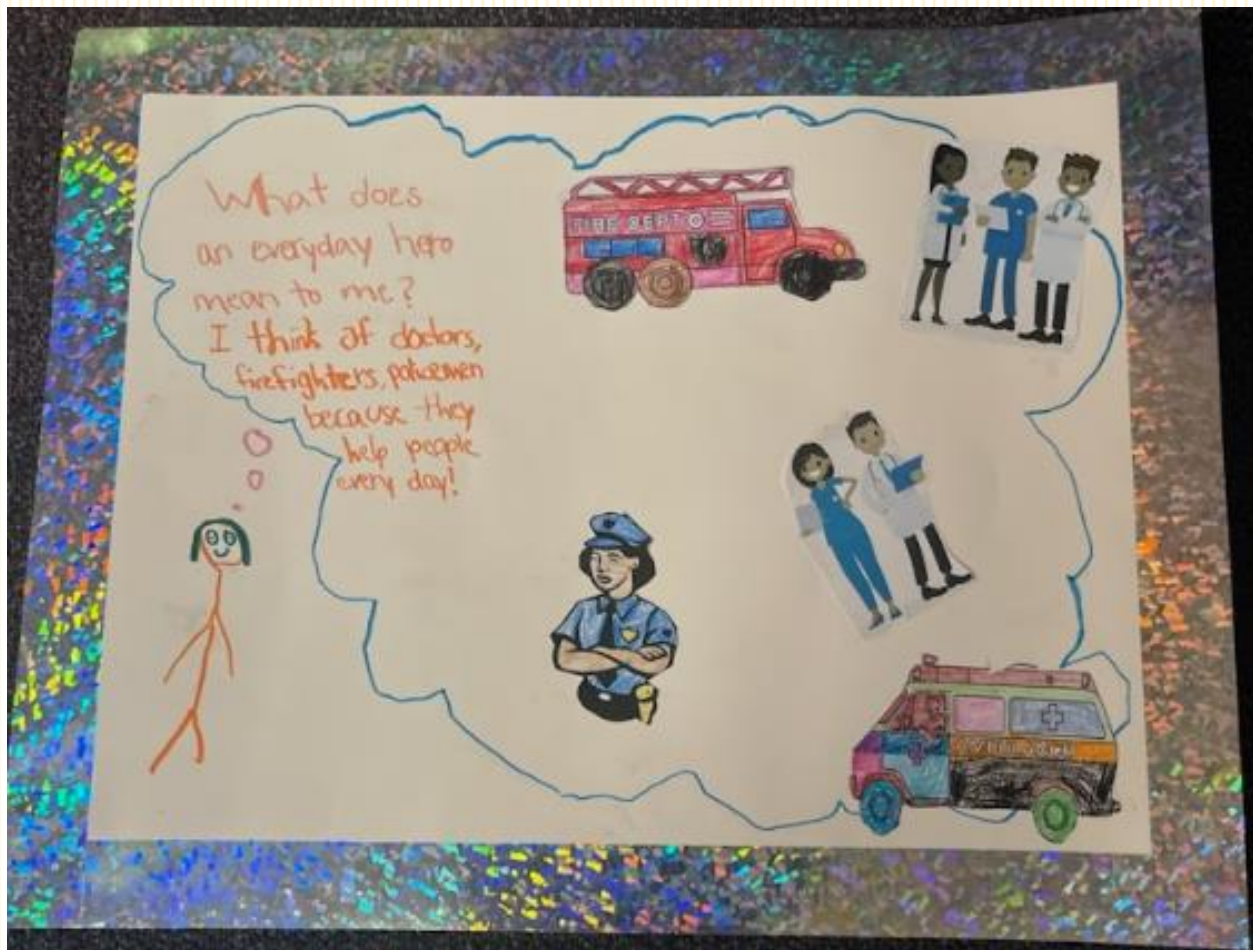

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Sarahi Q.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Abigail L.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Kayla C.

My mom can help me find my way. She is the only superhero I have. Everyday superhero are like people in our lives who do things day-to-day. My mom makes a lot of sacrifices. She works hard all day and comes home just in time to cook dinner, clean the house, do laundry, takes care of me and my siblings.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Jerrica B.

My daddy teaches me right and wrong so I make smart choices. When he cooks steaks on the grill he makes mine just the way I like it. When I'm sick he makes me warm tea with honey to help my throat. He is not Batman or Superman but he is my daddy and that makes him a superhero to me. Heroes don't always wear capes.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Carver Elementary School

Lilli B.

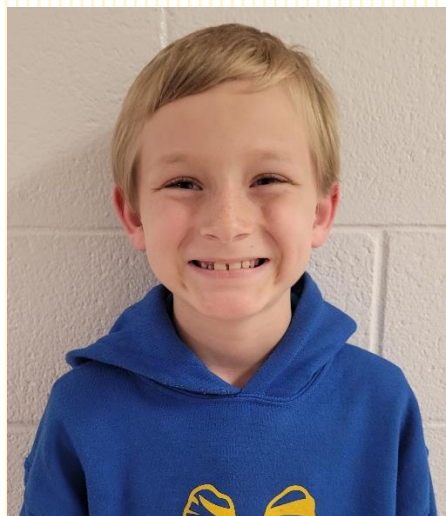

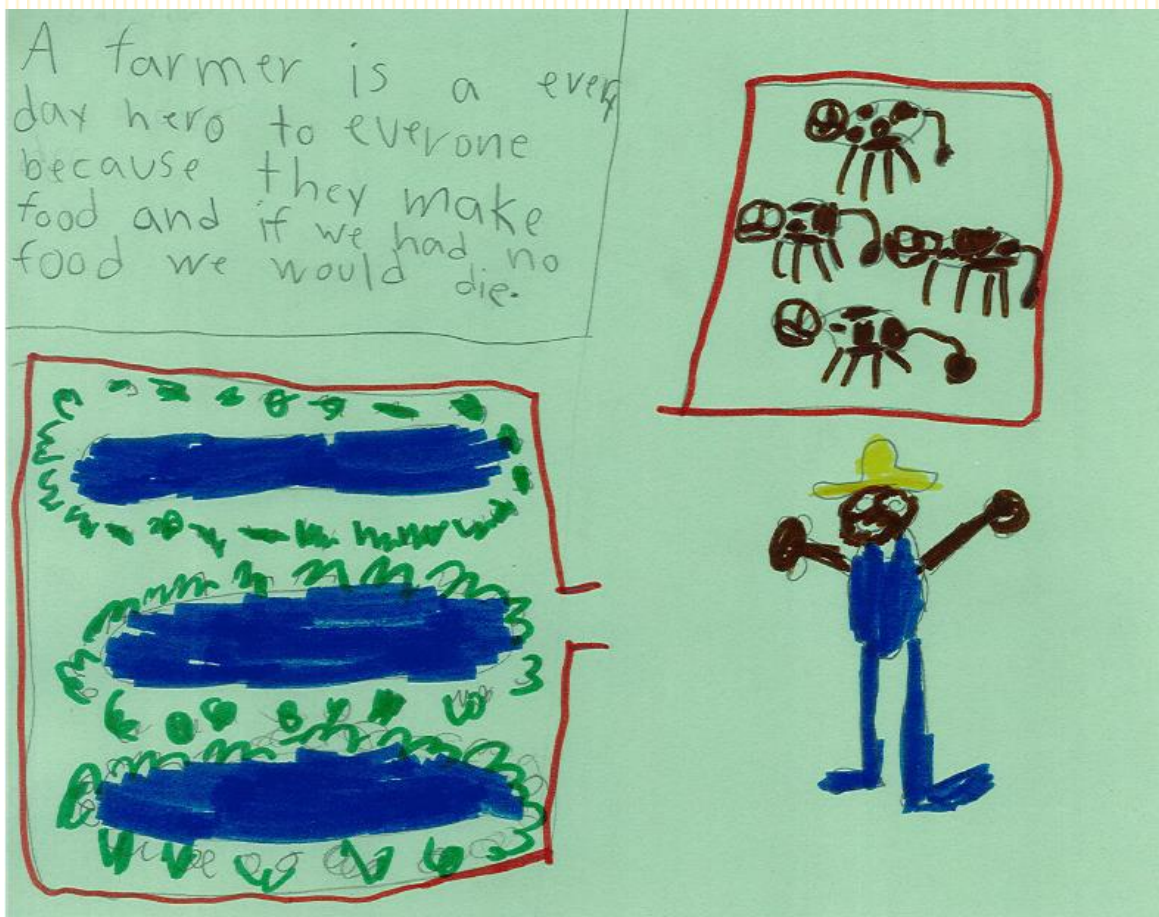

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Eliana C.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Zander M.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Za'cariah C.

A mother provides guidance to help you grow up by making right decisions.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Riley W.

My mom and dad do way more heroic stuff that I can't even fit in this essay!

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Carver Heights Elementary School

Talena W.

My hero is someone who is kind, they protect you and help you do goods. I'm talking about my mom.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Lillie R.

I have two superheroes my mom and Mrs. Adams, my mom will move mountains to make things happen for our family, Mrs. Adams is an inspiration and a breath of fresh air she bring a smile to my face everyday and a word of encouragement.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Mark A. C.

What a everyday hero mean to me, someone who is brave and tough and they make my world a better place. It's my mom and dad.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Dillard Middle School

Natika J.

“Everyday heroes to me means a lot. For example, your mom is an everyday hero. She puts food on the table, works for money to pay house bills, gives you clothes and so much more.”

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Tremayne S.

“An everyday hero for me is my family and God. My family supports anything I do except bad things. God wakes me up everyday and keeps me from bad things.”

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Ariyana J.

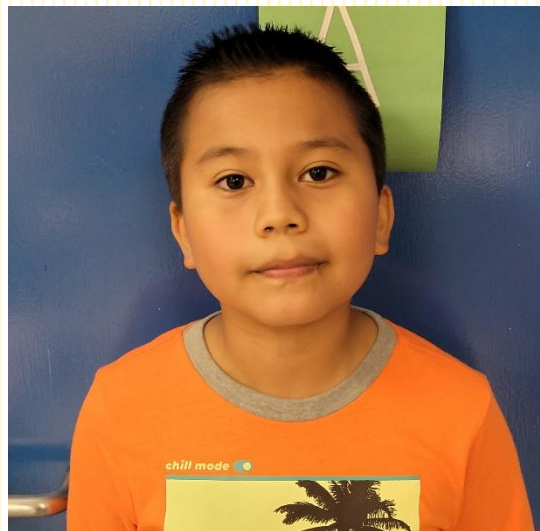

“I think an everyday hero is someone who is selfless and puts the life of others first. I feel like a hero is someone who is a risk taker and strongly cares about the wellbeing of absolutely everyone no matter their past.”

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Eastern Wayne Elementary School

Freddi L.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Chrishona B.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Makayla R.

"Both my grandparents will be my heroes till the end of time just because they love me all the time, no matter what. People may turn to television models, superstars, pro-athletes, etc., but none of them could come close to my grandpa and grandma. They are my idols, or should I say, heroes."

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

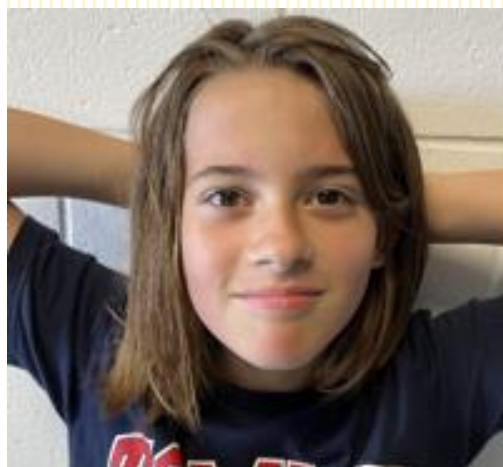

Jaelyn N.

"My mom has made my life an incredible roller coaster (one I'm NOT scared to ride on!)...She is such a great mom and cares for us through ups and downs. I love my everyday hero and always will...to the moon and back!"

Brooklynne G.

"Most heroes may wear capes, but my heroes wear uniforms and have a power and love for their country and its people. Heroes might have super cool names, but my heroes are called the military. One last way they help us is by being heroes in general--by being kind, strong, caring, and most importantly protecting our country."

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Eastern Wayne Middle School

David C.

You know, some heroes are teachers because they help you learn... like my teachers. If it was not for my teachers this year I would have not passed my classes this year. So teachers are true heroes because they are the ones who can pass you so that you can get into college to get a good education and a degree.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Diego C.

"What I mean by a hero is a person that faces the impossible to do what they think is the right thing. Malala Yousafzai is a Pakistani activist who fought for women's rights in her country of Pakistan, during which women were not allowed to do anything but only men."

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Sterlie D.

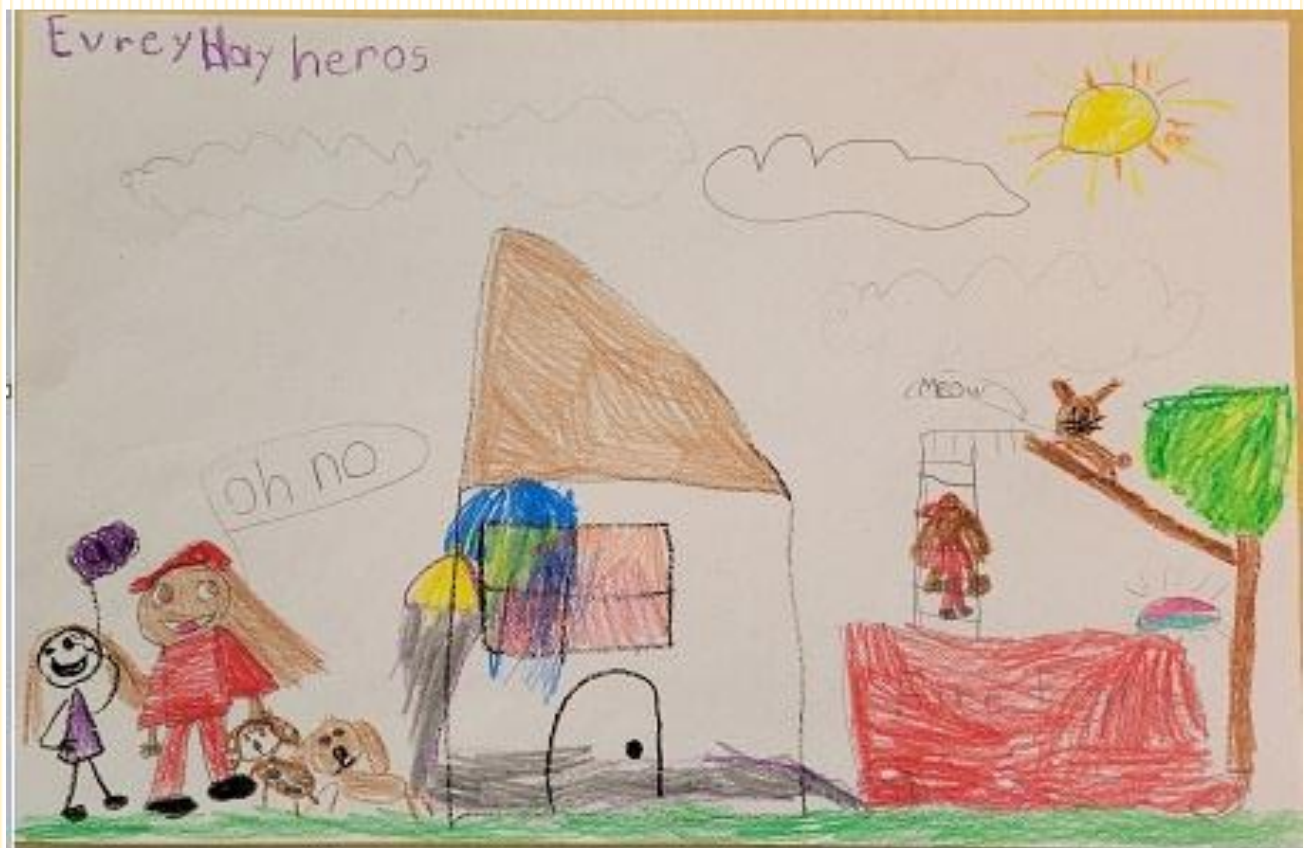

"I admire everyday Heroes because they want the best for you. They sometimes might be harsh, but it just shows how much they love you. They also are brave and courageous. My favorite part about these heroes is that they are honest and inspirational."

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Fremont STARS Elementary School

Madelyn S.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Adelyn L.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Anabella K.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Georgia Lynn F.

"One of my everyday heroes is my mom because she inspires me to keep trying even if I'm having a hard time doing something."

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Makena R.

"I chose my grandpa because he was a firefighter. He was, in fact, the chief of Polly Watson Fire Department. He died responding to a call. He saved many people and maybe even some pets. He could have even saved me one day. I loved him and he loved me back."

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Cameron H.

"A hero could also be a police officer, a firefighter or in the army. We didn't ask them to do that, but they did it for us. A doctor is a hero too. Imagine life without them! An everyday hero isn't someone from the movies. They are regular people."

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Grantham Elementary School

Valeria R.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Audriauna K.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Charleigh A.

Everyday heroes to me are people who help others. They are kind, respectful, friendly and helpful. There are a lot of everyday heroes and everyone of us can be one.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Damian C.

An everyday hero is a person who helps and supports you everyday. They give you their kindness and treat you how you want to be treated. An everyday hero gives you love.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Grantham Middle School

Joann W.

Have you ever not been able to reach something on the top shelf in a store and a stranger came to help you get it? They are heroes, not only because they helped you get something, but because they showed you kindness that you will most likely show to others, helping them with little stuff that makes a big difference. Just by doing little things, you can make a difference that can, and probably will, change a life.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Anjali W.

My definition of an everyday hero is someone that helps people without even knowing it. They are kind, honest, respectful, and independent. They help whenever they can without hesitation. They love doing what they do and they don't give up.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Aiden L.

Everyday heroes can be defined as usually nice enough to go out of their way to help people that they don't even know. Most of the time, they are just random people who don't even know that they are heroes to somebody else. They just know that helping others is the best thing that they can do. That is what the phrase "Everyday Hero" means to me.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Greenwood Middle School

Hailey E.

Jolie a 25 year old Swedish Warmblood mare, has inspired me to be the person who, even if it's temporary, relieves stress in someone's life. She has also taught me the meaning of an animal's life and is inspiring me to become a farm veterinarian. That would mean I'd be doing something that I love around animals that I love.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Amarii W.

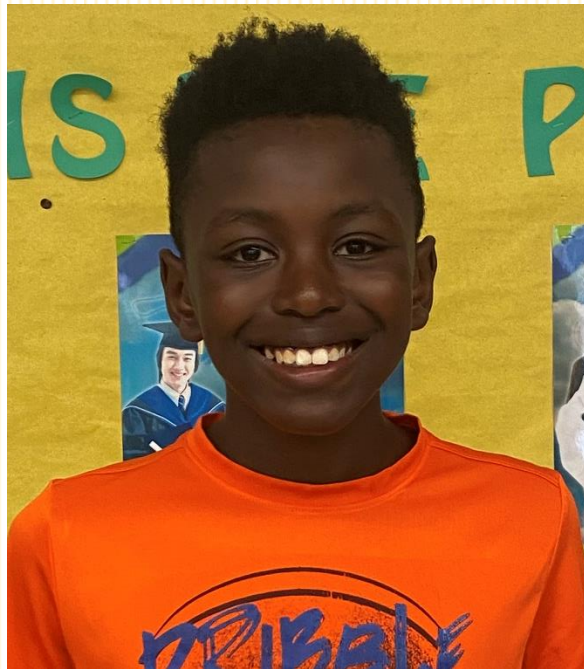

Who are our everyday heroes? In movies everyday heroes are people with powers and skills. But, what about the people who are always there for you and can help you without superpower, but with their knowledge. Are they considered heroes too?

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Jaden I.

The next heroes that I want to talk about are Firefighters. They save many people; whether they are in a burning building, stuck at the top of a Ferris Wheel, stuck between two cars, or in a car accident. They are always there to help.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Meadow Lane Elementary School

Veronica O.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Madison G.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Anijah B.

"I think an everyday hero is someone who can give back to the community and help others. Like raking leaves for an elderly person who may not be able to do it themselves. Mow someone's lawn for free and don't do it for the money, do it because you want to help people. Do it to put a smile on someone's face."

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Lily A.

"Without doctors and nurses, many people would be sick, injuries wouldn't be cared for, and my grandparents would not have gotten the care they needed. Those are a few reasons my everyday heroes are doctors and nurses."

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Edwin A.

"An everyday hero is a person that protects you and that will always be there for you. My everyday hero is my Dad, Edwin..." "He is like a superhero. One day I want to be just like my dad."

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Mount Olive Middle School

Ellie O.

My grandma is my everyday hero because even though she's going through things she always makes sure I am okay and asks if I need to get things off my chest. She is always there for me and is the most strong and brave woman I know. My grandfather is another one of my heroes because he is very strong and works so I can be proud of him, and I am very proud. After work he comes home and spends time with us even though he may feel tired or hurt.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Kevin C.

There's a type of hero more overlooked than others and those people are local business owners. These people are very brave and support the community in many different ways and in other ways they are selfless. With all the advantages they have to the community, they take many brave steps to support others and instead of joining some big chain, they decide to make their own business making these people incredible in my eyes, and you can be a hero by supporting these businesses and help them prosper.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Daniel T.

Teachers are one of the more patient heroes, as they have to deal with us students throughout the year, not to mention all the grading and teaching, and keeping things in order. Teachers are determined to have their students pass the school year with flying colors. Even if it means giving detention, calling parents, and waiting for the class to quiet down, their patience is what makes them heroes to society.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

North Drive Elementary School

Kassidy J.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Lailah A.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

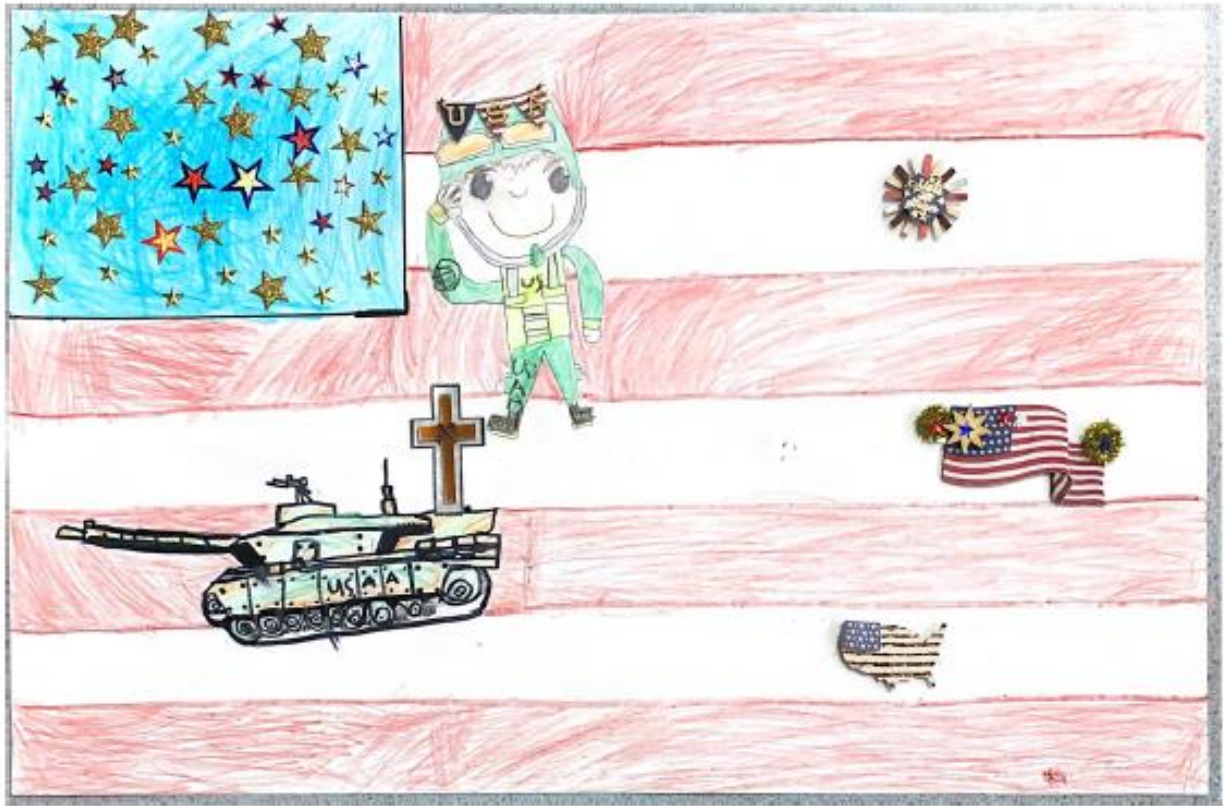

Richard S.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Northeast Elementary School

Zay C.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Nani H.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Keren M.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Tinsely S.

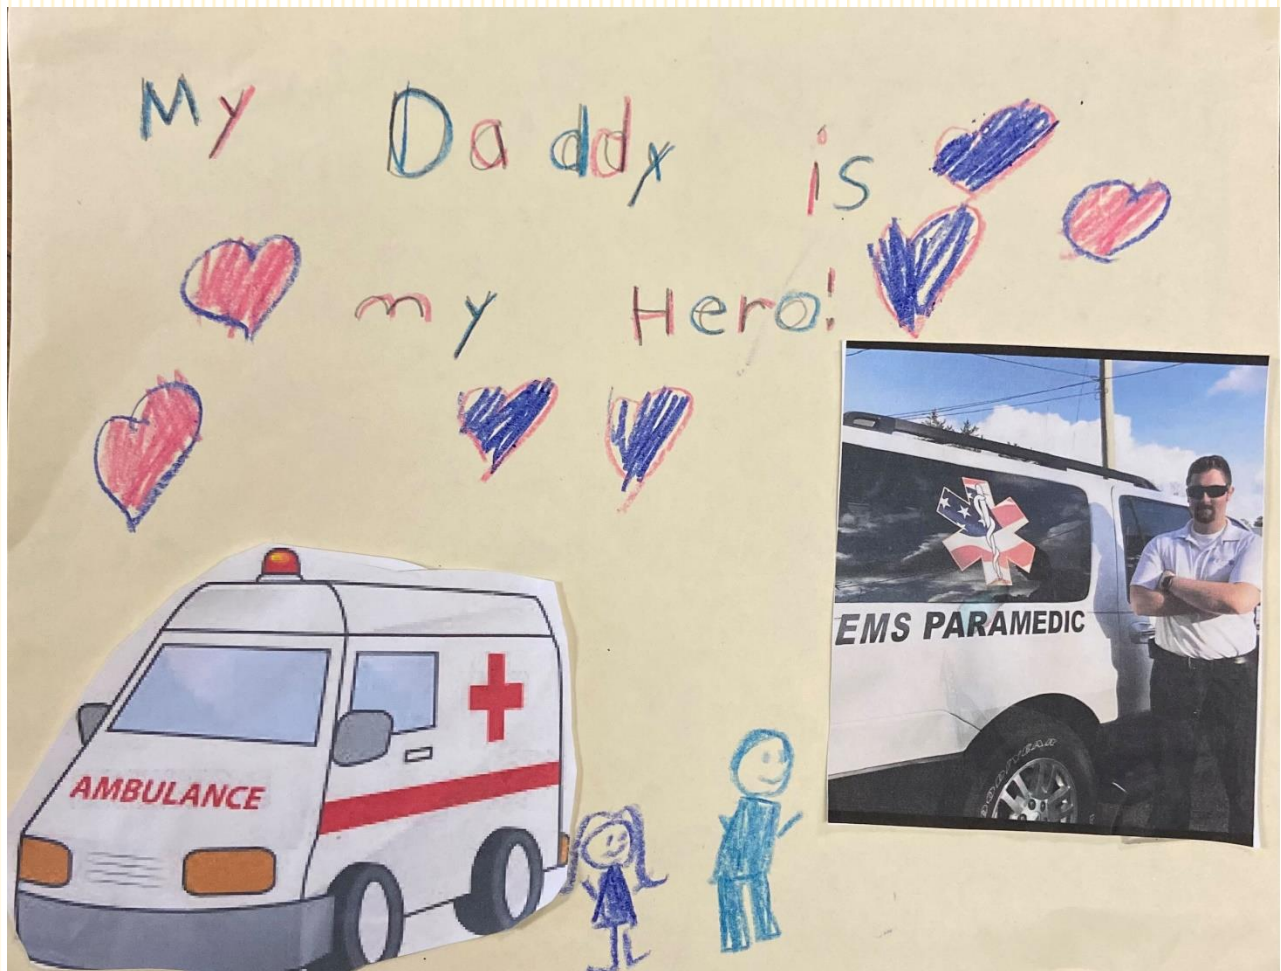

How can we help you if you don't talk to us.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

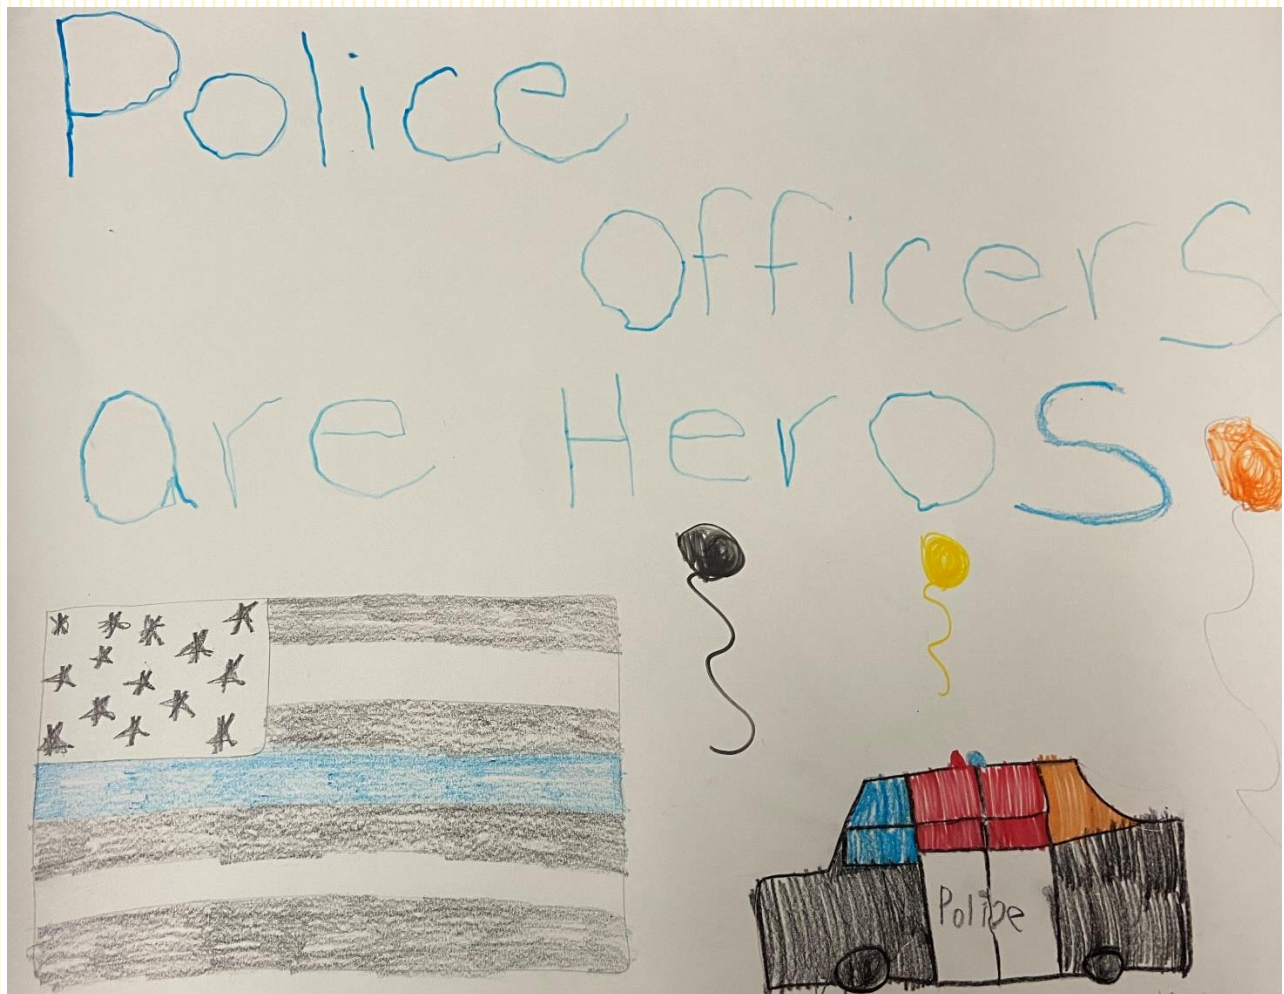

Northwest Elementary School

Nora G.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Weston R.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Mia P.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Rebekah F.

When I think about an everyday hero I think about people that are kind, generous, respectful, and hard working.

Teachers are everyday heroes. I am never in a bad mood at school because my teacher is kind and fun, and it makes me happy.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Soriah M.

Everyday heroes might be someone who risked it all for someone, has saved someones life, or could even just be a noble person that has helped me through hard or difficult times. Everyday heroes to me means not only someone that helps me during hard times but everyday people that love me the most. My parents are my everyday heroes.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Mackenzie L.

A hero helps people when they are hurt or maybe they help an old woman cross the street. A hero can help people everyday. A hero does not just turn into a hero, when they are scared they keep working and that's what makes them a hero.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Norwayne Middle School

Edward F.

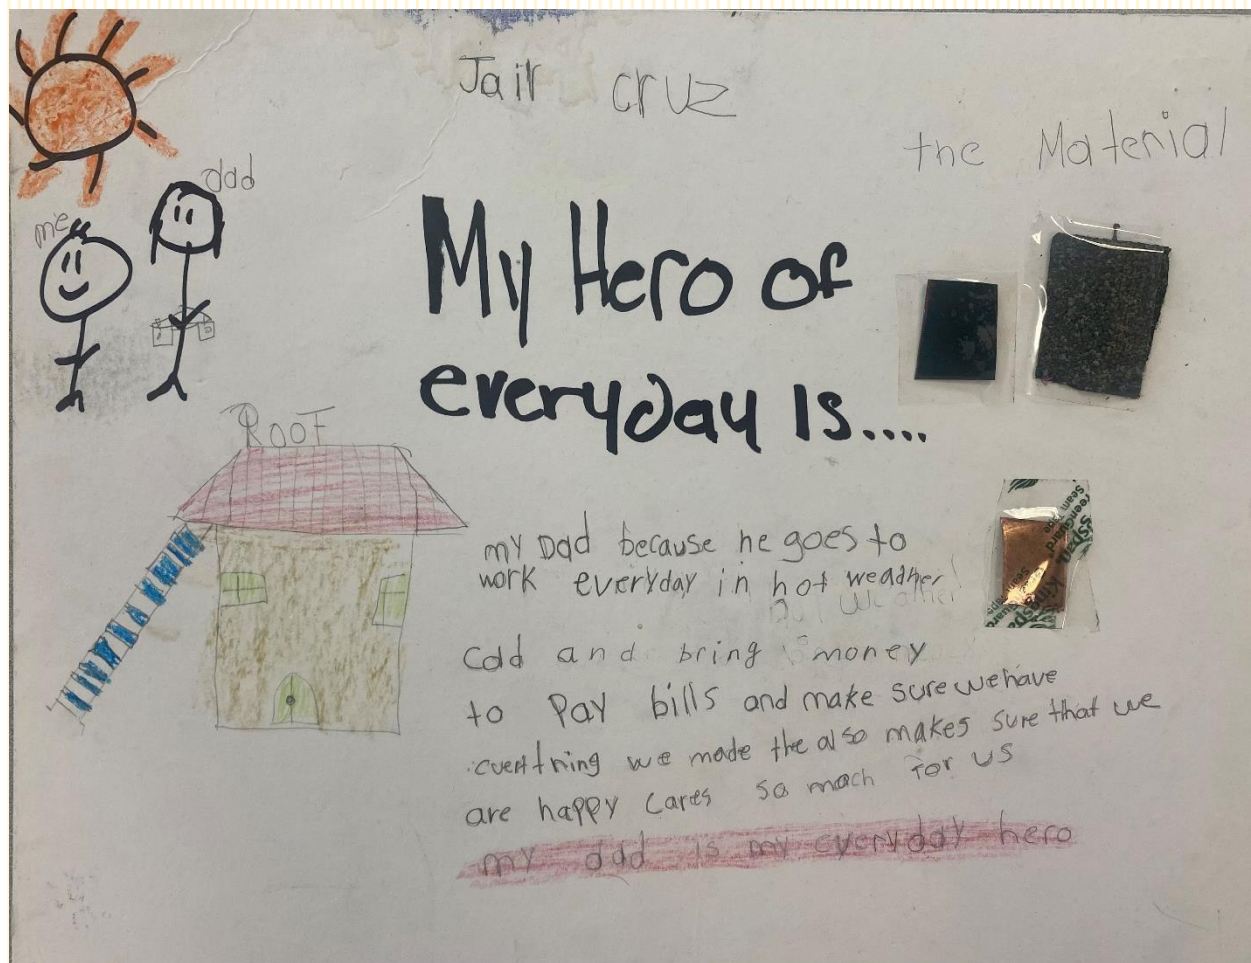

Everyday heroes are quietly spectacular because they do so much for you but it often goes ignored. There are so many adjectives to describe them and it's hard to pick one. You are surrounded by everyday heroes and I have so much respect for them.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

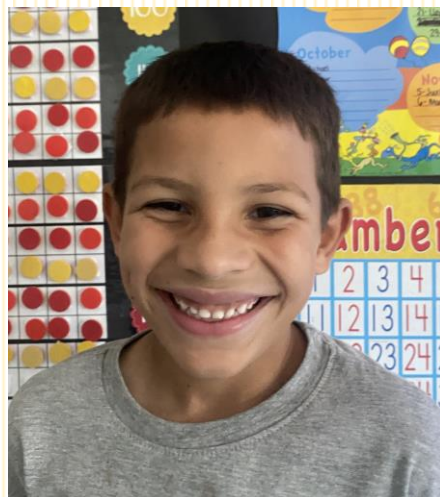

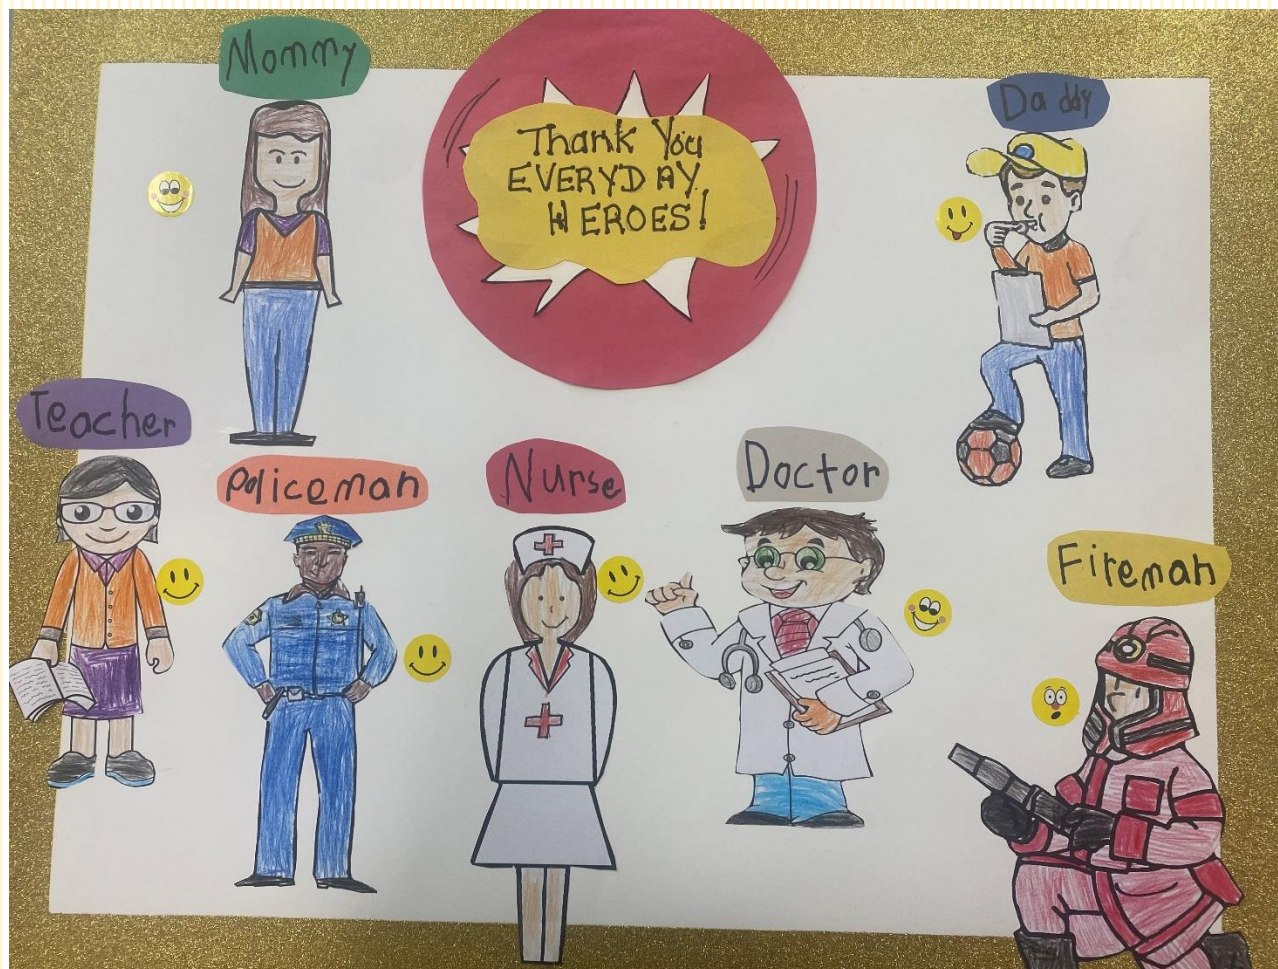

Rosewood Elementary School

Jair C.

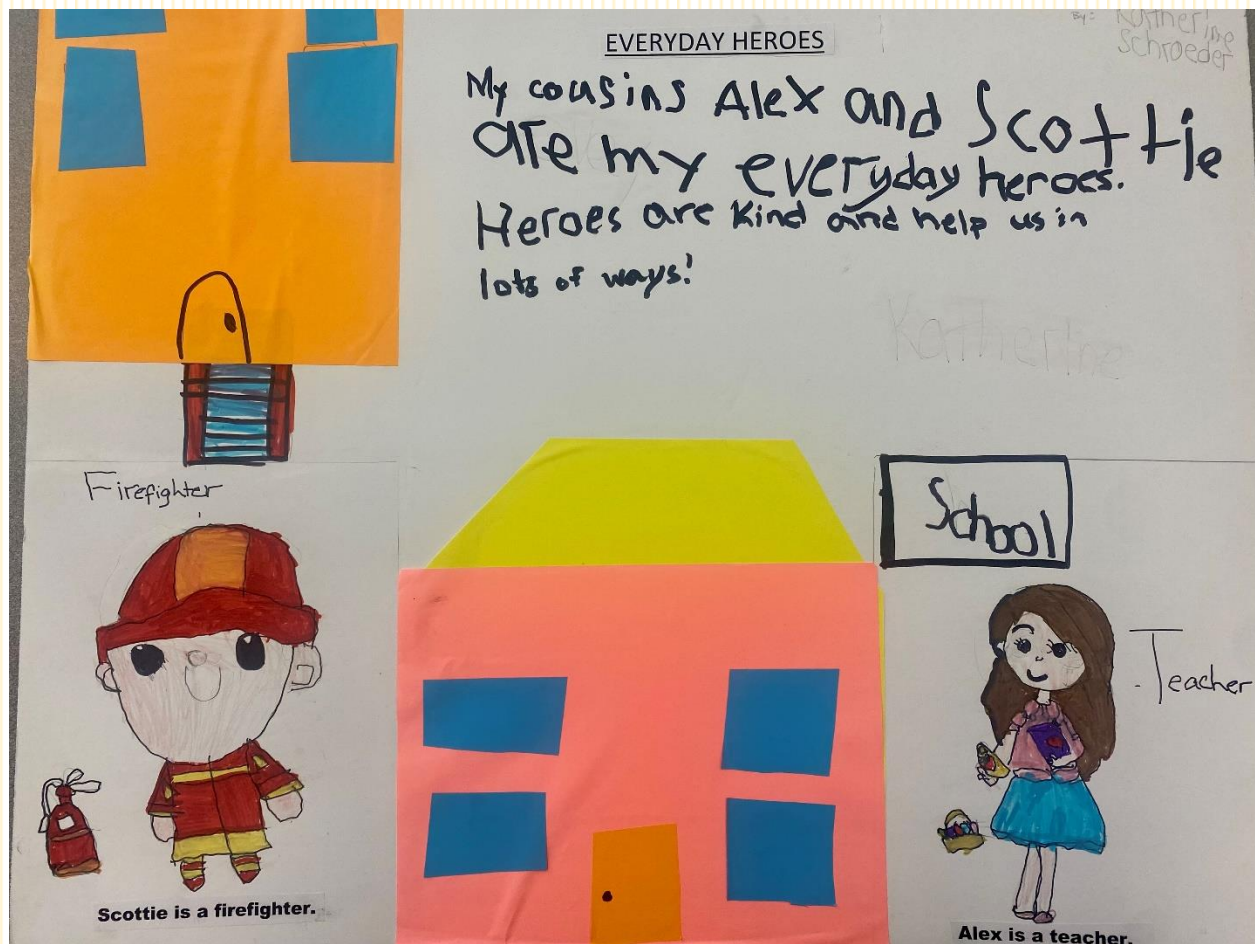

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Michael J.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Katherine S.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Allie R.

I promise we would not be able to survive without farmers. Farmers do a lot for this community.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Melany C.

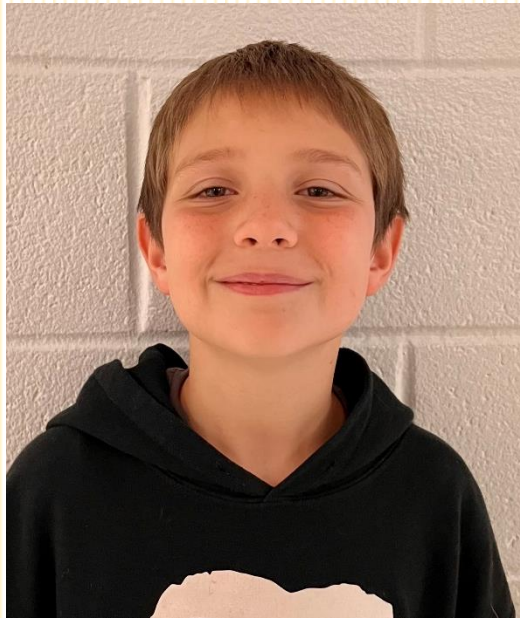

They live to help people survive and get better from diseases.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Eli H.

Police are very helpful to our world, they help us and protect us.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Rosewood Middle School

Addyson S.

Teachers truly do deserve more recognition than they get.

We often take people for granted because of our own emotions, and we don't tend to put ourselves in other people's shoes. But I truly believe that teachers are our everyday heroes, and they make sure we succeed in the future.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Kylie H.

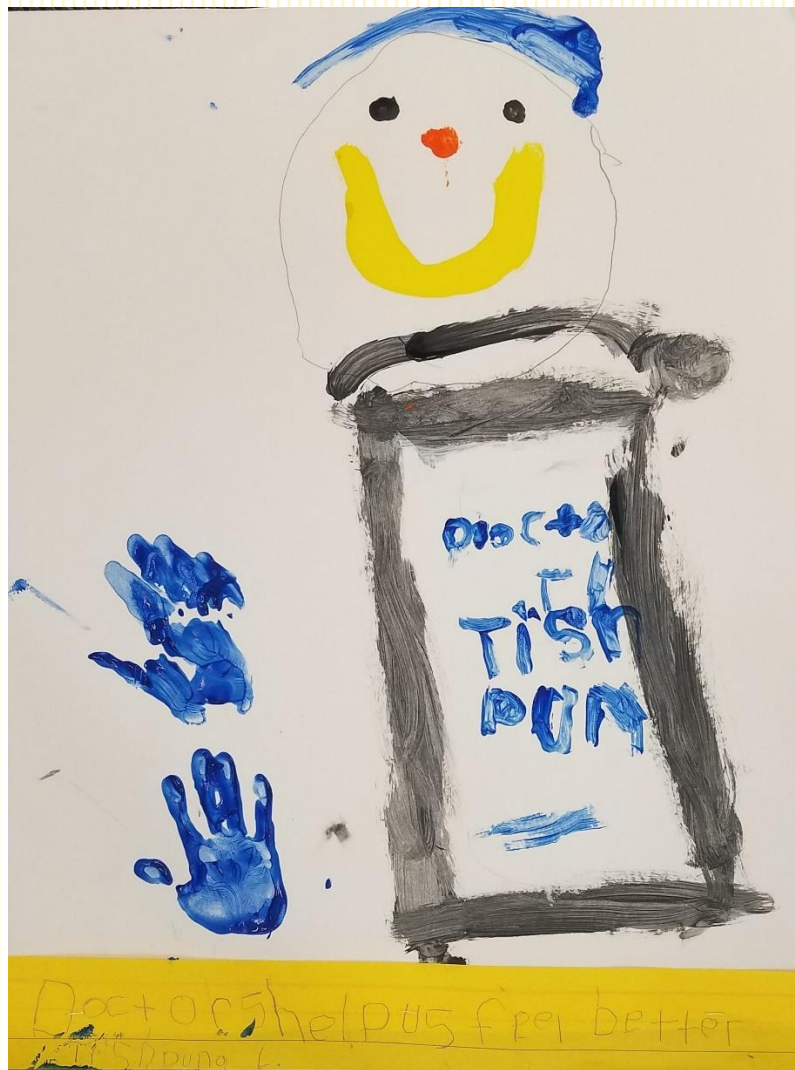

Teachers give kids many valuable life lessons that will help them after they graduate and become an adult. Many kids look up to their teachers as their role model and guide. Teachers truly love and care for their students, we need them.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

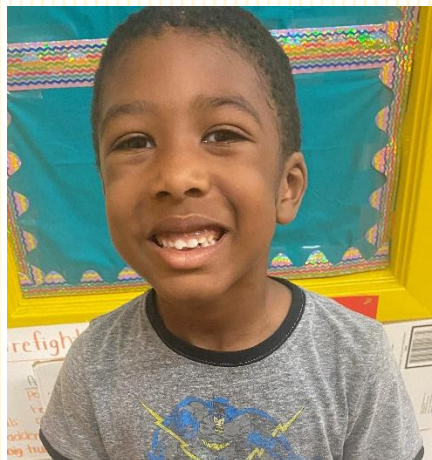

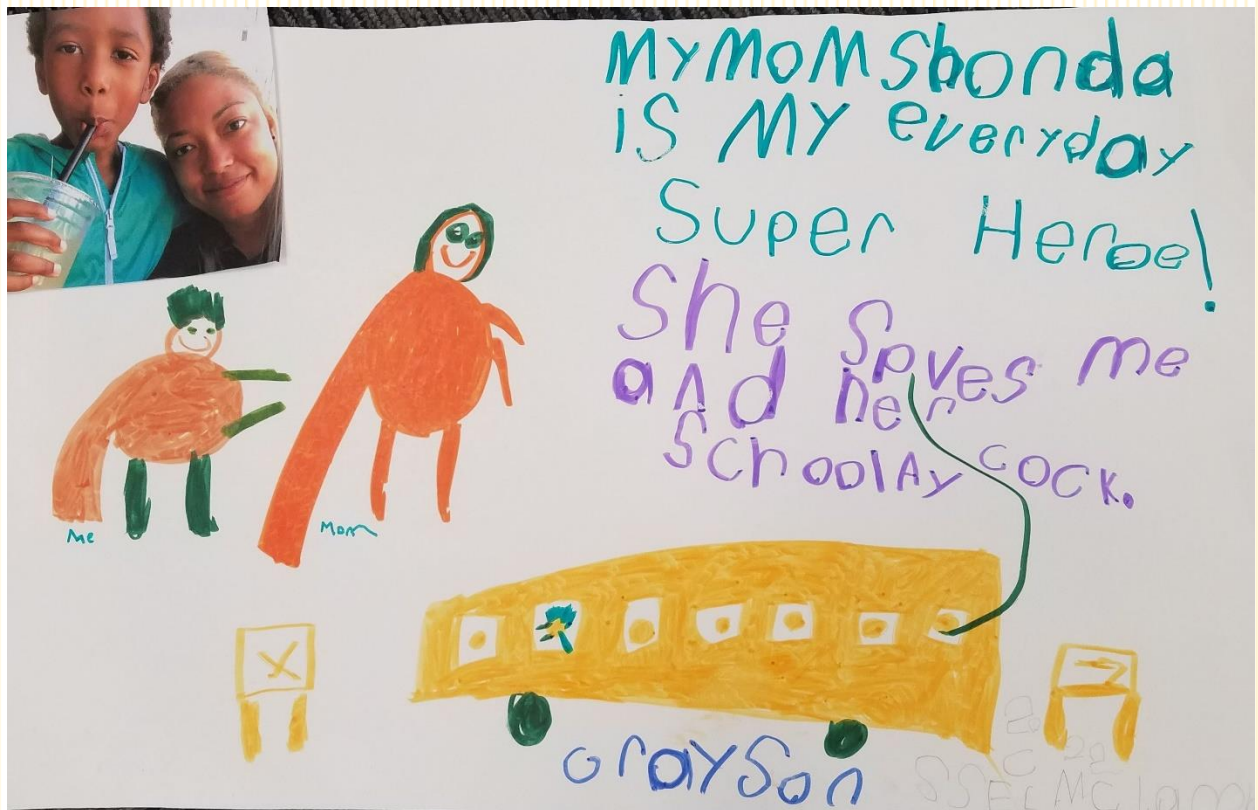

School Street Early Learning Center

Ti'Shauna L.

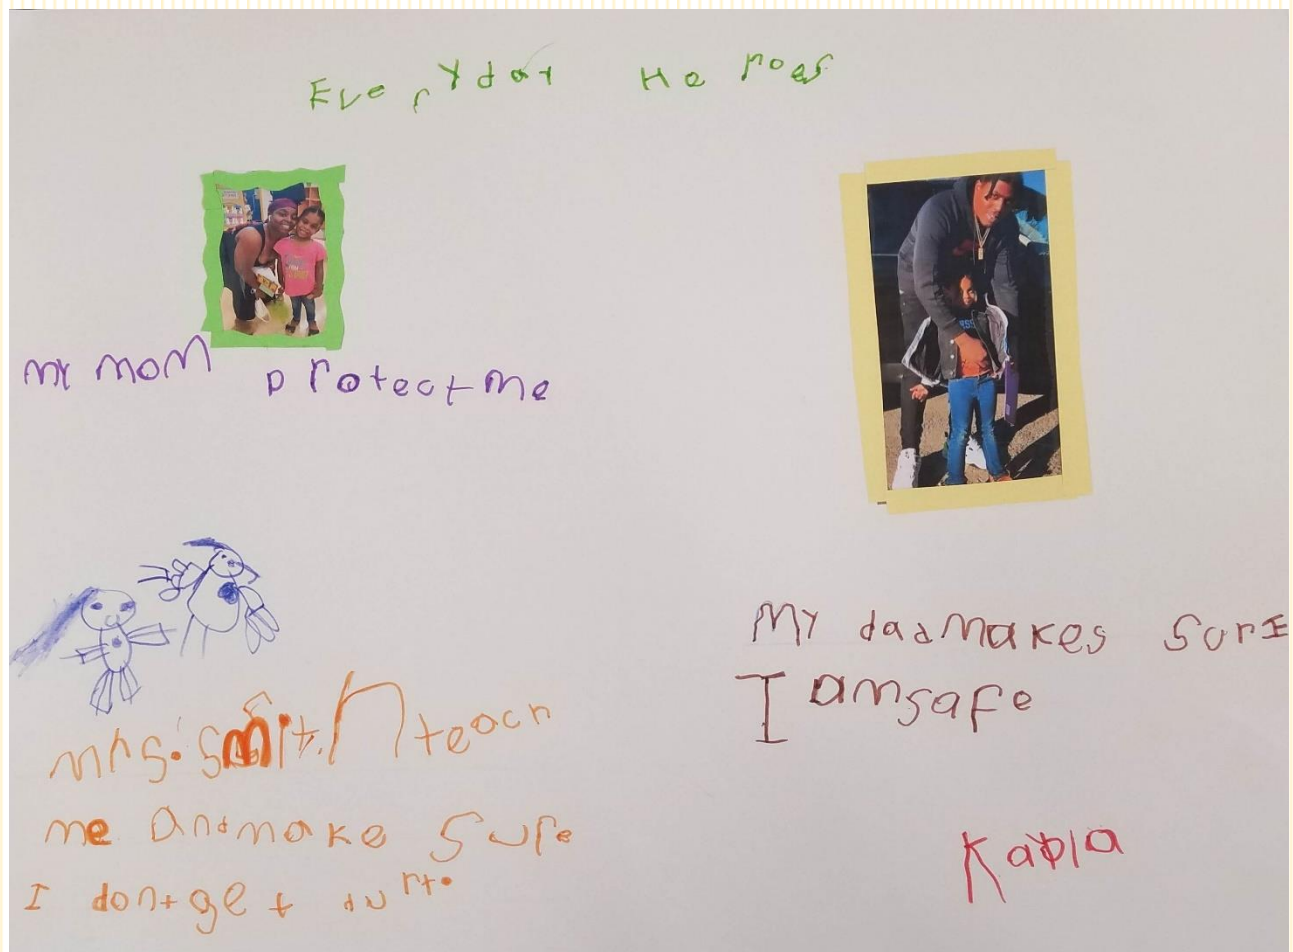

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Grayson M.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Kayla S.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Spring Creek Elementary School

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Emmanuel A.

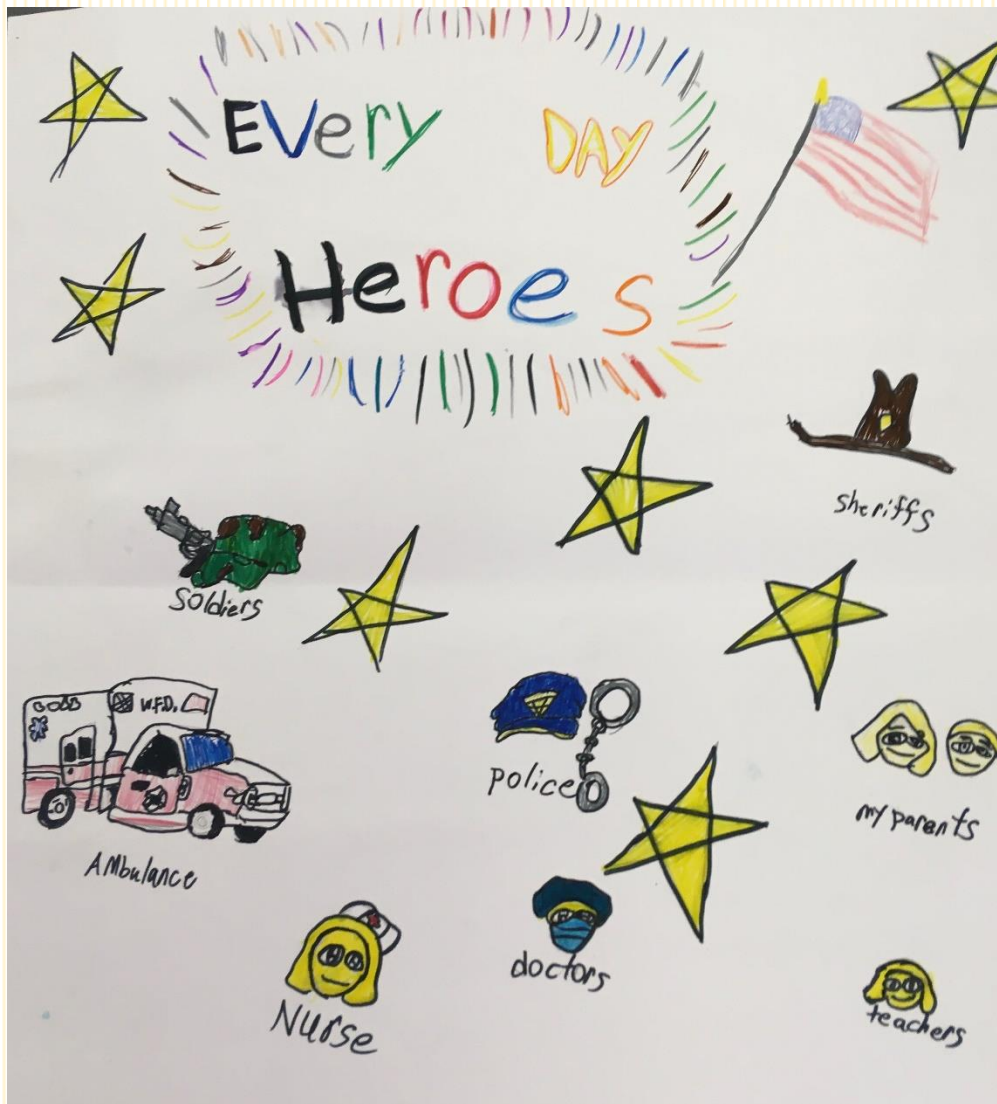

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

KyLeigh M.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Jose S.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Naomi T.

Everyday heroes give back to the world and truly make a difference in the lives of others. These heroes also have strength because they are powerful in their words and actions. Everyday heroes help us, teach us, serve us, and most importantly, raise us.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Falcon N.

Everyday heroes are people who help the community and help to save lives. Everyday heroes are brave because they stay calm in times of trouble and do stuff some people would not do. Everyday heroes will do or try their best to help a person when needed and necessary.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Alexa N.

My everyday hero does not take a day off and always puts his needs last and my needs first. He is kind, helpful, and patient. He is my supporter, coach, teacher, friend, and protector.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Spring Creek Middle School

Antony J.

An everyday hero is like a superhero but they don't have superpowers. They are people who go out of their way to protect others and make a difference. They can take the form of police officers, military personnel, firefighters, doctors/nurses, the average person (like you or me!) or really anyone who tries to help others!

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Vanessa F.

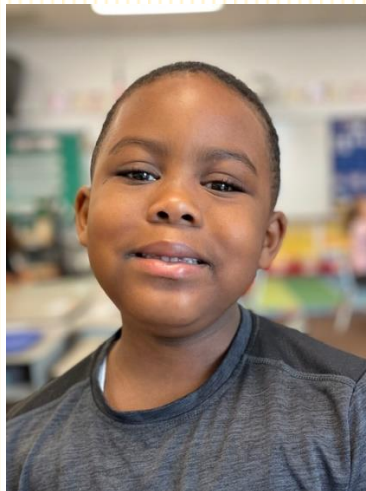

When I had been at my lowest, she [my mom] was there for me. She's not the average hero who gets in fights with the villains. My hero does her best to make me feel at my highest and not at my lowest. That is who my hero is.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Tommy's Road Elementary School

Jayden Y.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Aniyah M.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Rakyla R.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Jaela R.

My everyday hero is my brother LJ. He has made a lot of differences, he has helped the poor by giving them money or food, changed lives, worked hard, been honest, and made other people happy. He is also a great father to his child.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Sidonia A.

My everyday heroes are my parents. A hero means someone who saved or helped you or someone else. My parents keep a roof over my head and food on the table, and when I'm at my lowest they are there for me.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Chris B.

My Everyday Hero is Mr. Beast. He gives his money to many charities. He gives his money to the poor and the hungry, to the sick, to people who are cleaning up the ocean and who are saving the sea animals, people who pickup waste like plastic from the sea, endangered animals, and helps to clean up oil spills so the animals don't have to get in it.

Any work/content contributed by WCPS students in the Title I Student Recognition Showcase is considered the intellectual property of that student; is protected by copyright; and cannot be displayed, reused, reproduced, and/or redistributed without the sole permission of the creator.

Wayne Middle/High Academy

Leaha S.

I believe an everyday hero is someone who respects everyone and everything, is positive, kind, caring, and always tries to do the right thing. They never try to be like everyone else because they are their own person. A hero always follows the rules and stands up for what they believe in.

A'Rionna K.

My mom is my everyday hero because I never saw her give up, not even on her worst days; she just keeps going. She encourages me to keep going even when times get tough. I'm going to make her proud of me.

Thanks to all students who participated by creating posters or essays. We celebrate your hard work!