SFHS Scores Another Big Year at DMAC

This year's Digital Media Arts Consortium (DMAC) Festival at Robert Morris University had more participants and more submissions than any other year. Overall, student work at the awards ceremony represented schools from Allegheny, Westmorland, and Washington counties as well from the state of Ohio.

South Fayette High School was proud to bring home six awards including three for photography/photo editing and two for video!

Feature Package - Nicholas Geib

Founders Award - Presley Venum

Public Service Announcement - Lilly Green

These projects were completed with the help of multiple students from media classes, independent study, and Media Club who contributed to script-writing, camera-operation, and even on-camera roles. The Founders Award, earned by Presley Vennum, is given each year for outstanding media work by a senior.

This is another big year for SF. Last year, the students garnered eight DMAC awards, including the Founders Award, which was more than any other single school.

MS Enrichment Hosts Creative Convention

Rayo Famuagun, Nihaarika Lingam, Gianna Murello, Ishika Champati, Veena Juluru, Riya Sarvanan, and Madeleine Peden coordinated the day's activities.

Several sixth graders from the Student Enrichment program gathered this morning in the HS Conference Center to welcome peers from partner schools in the South Hills Area Gifted Consortium including Baldwin, Brentwood, Carlynton, Upper Saint Clair, and West Mifflin. These students, in grades five and six, participated in a creativity-centered competition designed and coordinated by our SF students. This year's theme: Disney Movies! Activities included drafting a 100-word story incorporating the titles of Disney movies; using an assortment of miscellaneous and crafting materials to create an identifiable Disney character; and an escape room featuring numerous Disney-themed challenges.

Teams from Baldwin-Whitehall School District swept the event with Team D winning first place overall and Team Q finishing second. Team D also earned the People's Choice award for their hand-crafted character. Congratulations!

The visitors had a great time participating in all of the events coordinated by Ishika Champati, Rayo Famuagun, Veena Juluru, Nihaarika Lingam, Gianna Murello, Madeleine Peden, and Riya Sarvanan with the help of Mrs. Donovan.

SHOUT Joins Peers in Creating Sense of Belonging

Students from the HS SHOUT organization joined peers from McKeesport and Upper St. Clair at South Allegheny High School's inaugural student summit on Tuesday. The event, named "UNITY THROUGH LEGACY: Honoring the Past, Shaping the Future," brought young leaders together to strengthen their commitment to creating welcoming school environments where every student feels that they belong.

The summit featured presentations from two distinguished speakers: 1) Sean Gibson of the Josh Gibson Foundation, who visited SFHS as part of the 2023-34 Speaker Series, shared compelling stories of preserving his great-grandfather's baseball legacy and the significant contributions of Negro League players to the sport; and 2) Pittsburgh native SunBear Coe, drawing from his Ute and Dakota heritage, demonstrated how traditional values and wisdom can guide today's young leaders.

The students also participated in collaborative breakout sessions, during which they created connections across district lines, exchanged ideas, and built relationships that will enhance their school communities.
