

Madison Community,

We have been notified by a high school staff member that the doctor has advised the employee to self-quarantine for the next seven days to see if the symptoms of coughing and fever persist. The employee has not been diagnosed with the COVID-19 virus, but has been advised to quarantine.

Rob Peterson
Principal
Madison High School