The Asheboro City Schools Plan A calendar provides an equitable instructional model for all students.

Students working in a traditional learning environment will attend school face-to-face four days each week. On remote learning days, traditional students will work remotely, completing assignments virtually at their own pace.

Students working in a remote learning environment will connect remotely with teachers in a blended environment four days each week and will have dedicated time for personalized instruction on remote learning days.

On remote learning days, teachers will offer:

- Office hours for remote students and their families
- Scheduled small group and individual sessions for remote students
- Student assignments through Google Classroom

NOTE:

ACS calendar and plans are subject to change based on guidance from NCDPI, the health department, or in response to increased COVID-19 cases and metrics. In the event that Asheboro City Schools reverts to plan B for elementary schools, students will follow the Elementary Plan B Calendar and attend school for in-person learning based on their group A or group B assignments. Remote learning days and non-student days will not be affected if plan adjustments are made.
