SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

Mr. Gregory thanked OCFT team. Administration Team and the Board for their work and support in resolving the updated Union Contract. He also thanked everyone that helped at last Friday night's football game. It was very well attended but more importantly everyone was safe and had a good time.

There was a reminder for the community about the upcoming renewal for the district permanent improvement levy in the November 8 Election. This is not a new levy it has been continuous for 55 years.

Presented Board with a strategic plan update format to review. Plan is to update once a quarter then perhaps have a work session at the end of each semester.

BOARD COMMITTEE REPORTS

Finance - Mr Ziviski mentioned that committee was covered in treasurer's report

Capital Improvement - Mr. Csehi reported that there were small items yet to be completed in the PAS but it is being used by students daily.
