CLAY HIGH STUDENT GOVERNMENT REPORT – Clay Student Council President, Curtis Stringham, and V. President, Katie Clark, updated the Board of Education on activities taking place at Clay High School. This year freshman orientation included a “Club Fair” to introduce incoming students to all activities available to join. There will be a monthly perfect attendance incentive this year for Clay students in the form of Kona Ice! Student Council set goals to work to improve student relationships and culture. Very busy this week with Homecoming celebrations.

STAFF RECOGNITION:

Board of Education recognized the work of Jerusalem Principal, Jeff Straka, SRO, Jeff Costanzo, and Fire Chief, Tony Parsaletti, for providing well stocked “Safety Buckets” and Safety bags for all Jerusalem staff . Jeff Costanzo was instrumental in getting these around with donations from many Oregon Businesses. Mr. Straka was extremely appreciative of the energy and effort Officer Costanzo puts into not only these supplies but for his work everyday training and supporting the safety of Oregon students and staff.
