

Behind the Green Doors – MARCH 2022

Homecoming King and Queen

Seniors William Horstman and Alyson Saxton were crowned Homecoming King and Queen for 2022!

MathCounts Competition

Ottoville students recently participated in the MathCounts Competition at Archbold, and also in the official online contest. Congratulations to Cody Calvelage for placing 4th at the Archbold contest and to Matthew Horstman for placing 3rd in the online event. Matthew advances to the State MathCounts Competition, also to be held online. Participants also included: Nick Brandeberry, Rowan Clay, Anna Bendele, Liam Druckemiller, Isaac Brinkman, Austin Schnipke, Lee Walston, Lauren Moreno, Jade Schnipke, and Cassidy Deitering.

7th Grade Girls = PCL Champs!

Congratulations to the 7th Grade Girls Basketball Team on winning the PCL Championship Title!

Leadership Activities

Mrs. Ray's Leadership class helped Mrs. Buss' class bake sweet potato fries.

Making Connections

Third graders are sharing items that have a connection to a book they read about a famous person.

Behind the Green Doors – MARCH 2022

Science Collaboration

The third and sixth graders met in the YET room to discuss rocks and the rock cycle.

The sixth graders wrote books that they read to the third graders. They also helped them paint rocks that will be hidden around the park once spring arrives.

Eggs and Incubators

Third graders are dissecting eggs as a part of their study of chicks. Both third grade classrooms have incubators and are hoping for a good hatch in about three weeks!

Regional Science Fair Results

On Saturday, February 26, six Ottoville seventh graders competed in the Regional Science Fair competition at Northwest State Community College. In all, the Ottoville students were judged to have five of the top eight projects in the competition and brought home several other awards. Ava Martz received an Excellent, while Chase Furley, Liam Druckemiller, Joe Leis, Evan Altenburger, and Landon Saxton all received Superiors and were among the eight participants selected for Super Judging. Chase ended up in fourth place, and Landon finished with one of the top three projects and is a Broadcom Nationals nominee!

In addition, all six students finished in the top two of their science categories. Ava was second in Animal Science, Joe was second in Behavioral Science, Evan was second in the Medicine category, Landon was first in Behavioral Science, Liam was first in Chemistry, and Chase was first in Engineering.

There were also numerous special awards given. Joe won the Air Force Award. Ava brought home the Association for Women Geoscientists Award. Chase won both the Governor's Award for Advanced or Alternative Energy Resources and the Ricoh Viability of Commercial Development Award. Liam won the Chemical & Allied Industries of Northwest Ohio Award for Chemistry, Engineering, and Physics, James R. Kiefer Retired Teachers Award for Scientific Method, and the Ohio Earth Science Teachers Association Award.

The students will next compete in the District Competition in March. Congratulations to all!
