BOWLING GREEN STATE UNIVERSITY

Your college degree begins at BGSU

The BGSU Firelands College Credit Plus program gives college-bound high school students the opportunity to earn college credit and high school credit simultaneously. This gives students the advantage of starting the transition to college early, while reducing the cost and length of time to receive a degree.

Some high schools may also offer these courses on the high school campus. Learn more about your opportunities at firelands.bgsu.edu.

The benefits:

- No cost to the student or families for course and instructional materials.
- All students are assigned an academic advisor.
- All College Credit Plus students are considered BGSU students and have access to many benefits and student support services such as campus programs, free tutoring and library services.
- Credits earned can be applied toward an associate or bachelor's degree.
- Learn from award-winning instructors who are focused on your success. Our faculty care about preparing you for the next step in your education.
