

Rodney Goode
Biography

Mr. Rodney S. Goode has recently been named Director of Personnel and Pupil Services, effective July 1, 2010.

Mr. Goode joined the district in January 1998 as an alternative school teacher at Cowpens Middle School. In 1999, he moved to Cowpens Elementary School as a fourth grade teacher. In 2003, he was promoted to assistant principal at CMS and subsequently to the Principalship in 2005.

Mr. Goode earned a Bachelor of Science in Elementary Education from Claflin College, a Master of Education in Elementary Education and a Master of Education in Educational Leadership from Converse College.

Mr. Goode has completed several leadership programs including the SC State Department of Education's School Leadership Executive Institute (SLEI) and Spartanburg FOCUS on Leadership, a non-profit organization of business and civic educators interested in the enhancement of leadership in the Spartanburg community. Mr. Goode completed the Principal's Induction program in 2005, and is a graduate of the Center of Creative Leadership in Greensboro, NC.

Speaking of Mr. Goode's recent appointment, superintendent Jim Ray said, "We believe Rodney Goode's experience and skills best fit the requirements of this important district position and know he will be an asset to our staff."

Goode stated, "I am so excited about the opportunity to serve as our district Director of Personnel and Pupil Services. As a product of this fine school district, I'm proud and honored to continue our tradition of excellent service to our students, staff, and community."