

Week One-March 23 to March 27

Hi All!

Not going to lie, I miss all of you already. I hope you guys are enjoying your spring break and haven't forgotten the book! If you forgot it's "Invisible Man," by Ralph Ellison. We've made it all the way to Chapter 12. We skipped chapter 13. By March 27th, I am expecting all of you to have read chapters 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, and 20. I know it seems like a lot, but I promise it's not. Space this out. Do not panic! You have a lot of time to read.

(For information on Journalism class, please scroll to the bottom of the page)

If you scroll to the bottom of the page, under quarter 3, you will find a link to the pdf version of the book. Audible is also available to listen to, but you have to pay, unfortunately.

-It should take you about an hour to read Chapters 14 and 15. That is only one hour! So sit down on Monday night (March 23) and set a timer on your phone, alarm clock, or make your parents tell you when you an hour is up. By the end of Monday, you should have chapters 14 and 15 completed.

-On Tuesday, March 24, you should begin reading chapter 16. This chapter should take an hour as well. Again only one hour. Set a timer.

-Wednesday, March 25, read chapter 17. One hour. Set a timer.

-Thursday, March 26, chapters 18 and 19. ONE HOUR. SET A TIMER.

-Last, Friday, March 27, Chapter 20. ONLY ONE HOUR. SET A TIMER.

DID YOU KNOW:

If you read every day, it can lower your stress level!

If you read every day, it expands your vocabulary!!

If you read every day, it improves your memory!!

Anyway, I expect everyone to have read to Chapter 20 by March 27th. IF we come back to school the following week, expect a reading quiz over these chapters. It will happen the first day we are back.

However, in the event, we are extending our time away from school due to COVID-19, expect an assignment over these chapters to be posted here. Additionally, you will be expected to do more readings if this happens. I will keep you posted as much as I can.
