FROM OUR CONFESSION

Of God

Our churches, with common consent, do teach that the decree of the Council of Nicaea concerning the unity of the Divine Essence and concerning the three Persons, is true and to be believed without any doubting; that is to say, there is one Divine Essence which is called and which is God: eternal, without body, without parts, of infinite power, wisdom, and goodness, the maker and preserver of all things, visible and invisible; and yet there are three Persons, of the same essence and power, Who also are coeternal: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. And the term “person” they use as the Fathers have used it, to signify, not a part or quality in another, but that which subsists of itself. Our churches condemn all heresies which have sprung up against this article, ...(from article I of the Augsburg Confession)

COLLECT OF THE DAY

O God, the protector of all who trust in You, without whom nothing is strong and nothing is holy, multiply Your mercy on us that, with You as our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal that we lose not the things eternal; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Luther's Morning or Evening Prayer

LUTHER'S MORNING PRAYER:

I thank You, my Heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ Your dear Son, that You have kept me this night from all harm and danger; and I pray that You would keep me this day also, from sin and every evil, that all my doings and life may please You. For into Your hands I commend myself, my body and soul, and all things. Let Your holy angel be with me, that the evil foe may have no power over me. Amen.

LUTHER'S EVENING PRAYER:

I thank You, my Heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ Your dear Son, that You have graciously kept me this day; and I pray that You would forgive me all my sins where I have done wrong, and graciously keep me this night. For into Your hands I commend myself, my body and soul, and all things. Let Your holy angel be with me, that the evil foe may have no power over me. Amen.

Benedicamus –

Let us bless the Lord. Thanks be to God.
