

Edison High School

Class of 2026

Deadline: March 12, 2026

LOCAL SCHOLARSHIP LISTING

Deadline – March 12th, 2026

As you read through these scholarships, you will notice that several are identified as C & E scholarships. The Citizenship and Education Foundation of the Edison Local Schools is a non-profit corporation established in 1988. The foundation is governed by a board of trustees from the community. The purpose of the foundation is to enrich and enhance educational opportunities by: creating opportunities for special and advanced study, endow programs in support of the curriculum, help sustain this community's tradition of excellence of learning, and offer scholarship aid. The C & E Foundation facilitates young people through four initiatives: 1) a scholarship program that helps students pay tuition to colleges, universities, and technical schools; 2) a grant program which supports teacher and student initiated projects and programs; 3) an endowment fund which facilitates educational programs and community projects; and 4) a special support fund which enables students to participate in special camps and exchange program.

Scholarships are listed on the local scholarship application unless noted otherwise.

BAND COUNCIL AWARD – Money for the Band Council award has been accumulated through many fundraising events sponsored and worked on by band council members. This award is intended to be used by a student who will major or minor in music in college next year or be performing in a collegiate music ensemble. This student should have demonstrated throughout his / her four years at Edison excellent participating in band and / or choir, as well as involvement in many extra music activities such as solo and ensemble context, show choir, stage band, pep band, pit orchestra and musicals, etc. His / her overall contribution to the music program can also be a consideration for this award.
