Snapping the Streak!

One Week after the Wildcats big time win over Elida. Bath traveled to Ottawa-Glandorf to take on the Titans, who the wildcats had not beaten in over 20 years. After 4 hard quarters of football, the wildcats came out on top of the Titans!! Mikey Hale led the way for Bath with a huge performance with 187 rushing yards! Carson Kinnaird led the defense with 13 tackles and two sacks. Kahne Sullivan tagged on 8 more tackles, 66 receiving yards, and a game sealing INT.

Bath High School Homecoming Week !!

Kicking off Homecoming week the Wildcats had their 48th Annual Bath Band Spectacular!! Our Band was awesome!! Later that week, on Wednesday September 27th we had the Wildcats Homecoming Parade with an amazing turnout!! We are so thankful for all the support from our community !!!

Run Fast!!! Hit Hard!!!

Junior High Wildcats!!

The Junior Wildcats have been battling all year long. 8th Grade is continuing to grow and get better every week! Bath's 7th grade team looks to keep their undefeated streak alive as they take on a good Defiance team on October 5th!!

Homecoming Game vs Celina!

Before the game Friday September 29th, the wildcats showed off all players who were nominated for homecoming court. The football team had 5 young men nominated. Freshman Eli Ripley, Sophomore Logan Markley, Junior Kyle Slaght, and Seniors Mikey Casey and Quintin Collins. Quintin "Q" Collins ended up winning Homecoming King!!! Bath battled hard as they lost 36-52.
