

Bell Jar Literary Criticism Research

To get to the library databases:

At Red Land High School -

Log-on to the computer, use Google Chrome, open a new window (+ sign at the top, like a tab)

Type go (This will show you the High School Portal, other helpful links too)

Select Red Land Library on the left side under Sites

This menu will look exactly like what you see on the library computers

At Home –

Go to the RLHS, pick Red Land Library (on the left)

Home Access (left side) Use passwords from the library sheet, print copies in the library

Click on Gale Databases – Research in Context

Select Research in Context (Orange letters on the right, under Opposing Viewpoints)

Enter search terms (Author, title, topic)

Click on Gale Databases – Academic OneFile

Select Academic OneFile (Under Magazines/Journals)

Pick Advanced Search (Author, title, topic)

Power Library Contemporary Authors

Click on the blue bar that says Biography

Select Contemporary Authors – enter the author (last name, first name) – search

If the name appears in green, it is a link, click on it to see the information

If looking for a specific title, control-F (find box), enter a word to see if it is there

Power Library – Books & Authors

Click on the blue bar that says Biography

Select Books & Authors, Search by a title and click on the title

Power Library – LitFinder

Click on the blue bar that says Biography

Select LitFinder, Search by title

Click on ProQuest

Click on the small box to limit your search to Full text documents

Scroll down to the Source type: check magazines, newspapers, scholarly journals

Return to the top of the page – you are now ready to enter search terms

Click on Salem Press

Select Psychology and Mental Health – enter search

Select The 1950s in American – enter search

 PRINT BOOKS TOO!! *****