The Community

Located in Wayne County, home to many world-renowned businesses such as The Wooster Brush Company, Artifex and the J.M. Smucker Company, and just 10 miles southwest of Akron and forty miles south of Cleveland, the Chippewa Local School District lies in the heart of a scenic rural area with a population of just over 10,000. The school district includes students from Doylestown, Marshallville, Rittman and Chippewa Township. Doylestown is a quaint residential community experiencing an upswing of small business development.

Wayne County provides many diverse opportunities to enjoy the outdoors. There are natural foot trails, paved trails, bike trails, birding and fishing areas, and the equestrian trails that are sure to please nature lovers of every kind.

The District

The Chippewa Local School District serves approximately 1,276 students in grades K-12 within its 30-square-mile enrollment area. The school district is the center of community life and the gathering place for children and adults of all ages. It enjoys a loyal alumni base and the community inherently revolves around school activities.

The Chippewa district offers a wide variety of rigorous course offerings, including advance placement classes available beginning in 7th grade. The extra-curricular learning and leadership opportunities extend well beyond the classroom.

The U. S. Department of Education named Chippewa High School (2012) and Hazel Harvey Elementary (2018) as National Blue Ribbon Schools. The U.S. News & World Report's "America's Best High Schools" ranked Chippewa High as #61 in the state and #1 in Wayne County.

Chippewa Currently has consortium agreements for College Credit Plus with Stark State College, Kent State University and the University of Akron. The district enjoys a strong scholastic relationship with the Wayne County Schools Career Center, as well.
