

David Silverberg, Ed.D., Director, Telego Center for Educational Improvement, Ashland University

Curriculum Audit Findings

This presentation highlights the findings from district-wide curriculum audits conducted around the state of Ohio. Thirty such audits have been conducted in sixteen Ohio counties resulting in some meaningful trends in the degree to which standards are implemented for K-12 English Language Arts, Math, Science, and Social Studies. Findings will also be presented that reflect trends in teacher views resulting from the climate surveys that were conducted as part of the curriculum audit process.