

Tim DeVecchio, Consultant for Security Services, Ohio Schools Council

Critical Components of a District Safety Assessment

Participants will be able to walk through the components of a successful district safety assessment including how to identify strengths, vulnerabilities, training needs, and communication capacity in an effort to develop a comprehensive safety assessment. In addition, the session will highlight cost-effective, expert-led safety services available to districts the Ohio Schools Council.