

Rosanna Torres, School Psychologist,
Summit Educational Service Center

Addressing the Needs of English Learners in Special Education

Join us in a conversation on how to address the needs of students from different cultural and linguistic backgrounds who have a suspected or identified disability. Are we implementing best practices during pre-referral, evaluation, and post-evaluation processes and intervention delivery? What if the child does not meet eligibility criteria but needs are evident? Let's talk!