Graduation ceremonies historically have been dignified, formally reserved occasions that have adhered to certain standards and rules of etiquette. Today, our graduating seniors deserve great respect and a courteous ceremony that reflects upon their past achievements and highlights their future dreams.

With this in mind, we would appreciate your kind cooperation in helping to maintain an atmosphere befitting this occasion. Please refrain from whistling, shouting or otherwise detracting from the ceremony. We also ask that you remain in the stands until the graduates leave the arena.

In 1895 American colleges and universities adopted a uniform code of academic dress. Bachelor's degree recipients wear gowns with long, pointed sleeves; master's degree recipients' gowns have long, oblong or square cut sleeves; doctoral recipients' gowns have closed, bell-shaped sleeves with three bars of velvet across the sleeve and velvet facing down the front of the gown. The hoods are lined with the official color or colors of the college or university. The color of the velvet signifies the wearer's field of learning.
