Upper Arlington Schools Curricular Opt Out Form

The Board recognizes that a course of study or certain instructional materials may contain content and/or activities that some parents/guardians find objectionable. If after careful, personal review of the program lessons and/or materials, a parent indicates to the school that either the content or activities conflicts with their religious beliefs or value system, the school will honor a written request to the principal for their child to be excused from a particular class for specified reasons.

The following must be completed by a custodial parent or legal guardian for the student:
